Pact"(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, May 3.—Mrs. Marie
Bunge, 42, and her two daughters, Edith Ann, 7, and Nina, 5, were found dead at Tampa, Fla., today despite the frantic telegram sent to police after another daughter, Ingeborg Bunge, 28, received a "suicide pact" letter from her father, Paul Bunge.The father apparently failed to keep his part of the pact after witnessing the death of his wife and two baby daughters and today police from coast to coast were searching for him.The letter was received at the Bunge home here yesterday morning at 11:30. It is said that the parents had decided to take the babies with them in death so that they would no longer be a burden to In-geborg and her sister-brother, Wolfgang, who is stationed in Houlouli with the United States Navy.Written By Father
The letter apparently was written by the father, although there seemed to have been an effort made to disguise the signature of "mother"; police here said.The family had lived here together until last February 23, when the mother, father and two smaller children left for Florida, when according to neighbors, the father failed to get employment after being out of work for a long period.The father spoke plaintively of the trials of life in his suicide note and thanked Ingeborg and Wolfgang for helping to shoulder the "burden" of the family's troubles.When the police in Tampa reached the residence of the parents as directed in Ingeborg's telegram they found the mother with her throat slashed and the babies with cotton stuffed in their nostrils and an empty chloroform bottle. The father is missing.According to physicians who were called to examine the bodies, they died sometime Sunday night.PA NEW C OBSERVESLocal tulip growers probably have been wondering what causes the blooms to wilt down and droop over when brought into the house this year. According to an eminent Pittsburgh horticulturist, the blame of weather we have been having this spring is responsible. The extreme heat has forced the blooms and on several occasions has been followed by cold weather, sapping the vitality of the plant, he states.One of the things that is sure to detract from the efforts of the Pennsylvania more attractive to tourists from other states is the recent law regarding the speed of a corruption in the Democratic state administration speeded up in ear-

With but eight days to go before the grand jurors convene and a scant fortnight until primary elec-ed by these developments:1. Attorney General Guy K. Bard's promise that for the present he had no intention of superseding District Attorney Carl B. Shelley, who heads the grand probe in Dauphin county.

2. Major Lynn G. Adams, retired ex-state police head, acceptance and immediate tackling of the job of assistant chief county detective under Shelley. He took the post without salary and said he was begin-volume of additional information concerning his charges of bribery and coercion in the administration of Gov. George H. Earle to Shelley.

Margott's original accusations and dismissal as attorney general led to in the electric chair seemed only a little more than 24 hours away today for blonde Ana Marie Hahn, Cincinnati poison slayer, but she clung desperately to the flickering candle of hope.While her counsel, Joseph Hoodin, was planning to go into court this afternoon in a move to block the execution, the "blonde teeburg" was pinning her hopes on an eleven-hour intervention by Governor Martin L. Davey.

Will Die Gaily

Mrs. Hahn, doomed to be the first woman to pay the supreme penalty in Ohio "chair," calmly awaited her fate in her cell in the state prison. Tomorrow evening she is scheduled to walk "the last mile."
But if she has to die, she says, she will meet the ordeal without flinch-ing.Her lawyer, Hoodin, prepared to go before Chief Justice Carl V. Weygant of the supreme court this afternoon with a petition asking that the case be appealed to the supreme court of the United States.No action is expected on Governor Davey's part until after the state supreme court has acted on this petition. The governor has given no intimation of what he would do.

Convicted Of Poisoning

The plight of the 31-year-old Mrs.
Hahn is attracting considerable interest. She was convicted in Cincinnati last November of the murder by poison of Jacob Wagner, a gardener, by a jury of eleven women and one man. The state contended she was guilty of other poisonings.Although a woman, there has been no sympathetic movement to prevent the execution. Mrs. Margaret Allman, director welfare, the first woman cabinet member in Ohio, who is in charge of penal institutions, told International News Service that this is an "astounding angle" of the case.

Scorned By Women

"No woman's group has interested in Mrs. Hahn's behalf," said Mrs.
Allman. "Nobody has seen to see us asking clemency for her. The correspondence in the files shows letters pleading for aid for condemned men. But none for her. It is rather pitiful."Mrs. Allman said she did not in-

From the shelter of Samana bay, at the eastern extremity of Santo Domingo, President Roosevelt kept a close eye on the weather today, hoping that showers and a sharp southeasterly breeze would abate sufficiently to permit him to go fishing.Although the cruiser Philadelphia had covered 1,160 miles into tropical waters since last Saturday's departure from Charleston navy yard, up to this morning no opportunity had presented itself for the president to break out his fishing tackle to try his luck with the barracuda, bonefish, amberjack and other deep sea fish that abound in the vicinity of his anchorage.A distinctly choppy sea kept Mr.
Roosevelt close to the Philadelphia's flag quarters all day yesterday and finally decided the executive to put in at Samana bay. Plans to explore and fish the silver bank, a large reef formation north of the Dominican republic, were abandoned after laying in for a number of hours.
Squalls prevailed last night.Deprived of fishing, the president concentrated on a batch of voluminous reports bearing on various aspects of his recovery and relief program, brought with him from Washington for detailed review.

New Angle To Wage-Hour Battle

Price Fixing Now Injected

Iowa Congressman Heads Movement For Price Guarantees For Farmers

DENIES EFFORT TO KILL WAGE HOUR BILL

By WILLIAM S. NEAL, International News Service Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON, May 3.—An agrarian demand for double-barreled legislation coupling wage-hour limits for industrial workers with minimum price guarantees for farmers was injected into the New Deal battle for a vote on the Norton wage-hour bill today.

The movement, introduced to reopen the whole question of both agricultural and industrial legislation, for which President Roosevelt summoned congress into special session last fall.

Denies Flank Movement.
Rep. Eicher (D) of Iowa, who headed the movement with the support of a bloc of western congressmen, emphatically denied that he was leading a flank movement to kill wage-hour legislation.

"What we propose to do is to file a petition and seek signatures of 218 members to call for the floor for a vote on a bill which would provide wage and hour limits but at the same time guarantee minimum prices for farmers," explained Eicher. "If we fail to win on this plan, we will support the petition for a vote on the Norton wage-hour bill."

"But many southern members of congress can sign the petition for both wage and price regulation, who cannot support the wage-hour bill alone. I can well understand how many southern members feel that they cannot vote for wage-hour legislation when agriculture prices are at a low level and the south is paying a greater proportion of its income in wages than New England."

"The present farm act is anything but a price stabilizing bill, which was promised farmers along with wage-hour legislation. Now is the time to enact both."

Failed In Senate.
The minimum price provisions in the Eicher bill, on which he seeks a vote, failed in the senate by only a few votes when the farm bill was considered and are said to be backed by a strong house group.

Meanwhile, the wage-hour bloc of the house, headed by Rep. Healey (D) of Massachusetts, drove forward in the hope of obtaining 218 signatures to a petition on Friday for a vote on the Norton wage-hour bill.

The bloc hailed President Roosevelt's support of the petition method to override the rules committee and bring the bill to the floor as assuring victory.

"We feel that we can get the entire 218 signatures necessary, or a substantial number, on Friday," said Healey. "The consensus is that we will stay here until the bill is passed—all summer if necessary."

All hope that the rules committee might reconsider its action in shelving the wage-hour bill, as suggested by Mr. Roosevelt, was abandoned by friends of the legislation. The petition method is their only hope for action, they said.

their horns furiously whenever they are held up for a minute or so by the car in front. Sometimes a long line of cars is stopped and immediately horns are sounded down the line. This very rude gesture only tends to confuse the driver who has caused the delay whether it is his fault or not, and in this way may hold up traffic even longer. Remember that the driver did not want to become involved in such a predicament. You too may be in one of these tangles someday, so treat others as you would want them to treat you.

According to a Union township resident, dogs running at large are quite a problem to folks making gardens. The state dog law enforcement agent paid a visit to the district recently and is planning a return visit in the near future.

It seems early to see such a profusion of flowers in a rock garden on Butler avenue, which include iris of different hues, and white and pink mountain moss, bordered with low pine trees.

At the corner of Leasure and Highland avenues, Pa. News noticed a most unusual amusement being taken advantage of by the neighborhood children. The foundation for a house, long since abandoned, makes a large circular bowl. Down one side and up the other, youthful cyclists were pedaling their bicycles at break-neck speed. It looked quite as exciting as an amusement park roller coaster, and from the shouts of glee from the children, they evidently found it so.

Reports of an unusual occurrence at the Lloyd Moore farm at Castlewood is given to Pa. News. Recently, a swarm of what looked like bees alighted at the farm. Investigation showed that instead of being bees they were June bugs.

Just to show how much warmer it has been this spring than last, today is the first day in a long time where the temperature a year ago and on the same date exceeded that of the current date this year. A year ago today the mercury reached a mark of 87 degrees.

Detour marks are beginning to stud the Detour Bulletin of the state highway system, according to the detour information for the period ending May 13. There are no new detours in the local district, however.

FLORIDA PRIMARY HOLDS INTEREST IN CONTESTS OF DAY

ually attract much interest in national politics, but this one has for chiefly White House reasons.

It is a five-way struggle in Florida for the Democratic senatorial nomination.

The leading candidate is the incumbent, Senator Claude Pepper, 37 years old, who was elected just 18 months ago today to serve out an unexpired term. He is a thoroughgoing new dealer, who has faithfully gone down the line for the White House on all issues.

The others are: Rep. J. Mark Wilcox, a third-term congressman, who has been for some time against other Roosevelt legislation; Ex-Gov. David Sholtz, who has no legislative record regarding the new deal, and who has campaigned largely on local issues; T. S. Merchant, a weekly newspaper publisher, and Findley Moore, an attorney.

Son "Jimmy" Factor
The interest that the politicians feel in this contest is largely due to son-secretary James Roosevelt. In Florida last winter, just as the situation was beginning to warm up, young "Jimmy" said in the course of a speech to Florida Democrats that "we want Claude Pepper back in the senate." The significance of that "we" was not lost upon Florida Democrats—nor upon Pepper's opponents.

Postmaster General Jim Farley later tried to make amends for that "we" by making sundry Florida speeches in which he assured his hearers that the national administration was neutral in all Democratic primary contests. But that "we" had sunk in, and it became an issue, although in their speeches both Wilcox and Sholtz have refrained from criticizing Rooseveltian policies. They have insisted that the personal popularity of President Roosevelt is not concerned in the fight.

Under Florida law, there may be a run-off primary three weeks hence if it proves to be close between the leaders. If Pepper can manage to avoid a run-off, most politicians will accept it as a Democratic endorsement that Mr. Roosevelt and his policies are still popular, despite recession. However, both Wilcox and Sholtz are reputed to have considerable following in the state, due to their longer political activity, and the result may be close in a three-way contest.

In Other States
In the other primary contests today there is little of national interest. Mostly they revolve around local and factional issues in both parties.

Indiana nominates candidates for 12 congressional seats, but a peculiarity in the Indiana law leaves the candidates for senator to be chosen in a state convention, the date for which is fixed by the state central committee.

This leaves a conspicuous anti-new dealer, Senator Frederic Van Nuys, out of today's limelight. He was one of the leaders against the Roosevelt court plan, and is at odds with the Democratic organization in Indiana.

Gov. Clifford Townsend announced on the White House steps some months ago that Van Nuys would not be re-nominated by the Democrats of Indiana in convention assembled, meaning, of course, that the organization will control the convention.

Van Nuys is prepared to run independently if and when he is denied renomination. In that event, the Republicans may conceivably gain a senate seat this fall.

In Alabama, the Democrats will nominate nine congressmen and the incumbent senator, Lister Hill. In South Dakota, each party will nominate two members of congress and a candidate for the senate seat now occupied by Senator Hitchcock, a Democrat, who is serving under an appointment by the governor. Hitchcock is a candidate to succeed himself.

PRESBYTERY WILL SUMMON PASTOR

tion and the petition of protest were talked over by the assembly of clergymen and lay delegates yesterday. The session lasted two hours.

While the discussion was spirited, it was conducted with the dignity befitting the serious occasion. Dr. Kirkbride, who was elected moderator at the spring session last week, presided. The meeting was called to order shortly after 2 o'clock.

Rev. Bingham of Wampum, as stated clerk, first read the two documents which had been presented to presbytery at the meeting last week, dated March 25 and 26.

Dr. Kirkbride then announced that the appointed committee had visited on April 25 the Calvary congregation members who are renouncing the Presbyterian Church of the U. S. A., had been received courteously by them, and that they had had a council together. On this committee were the Revs. Byers, Bingham, D. C. Schnebly, and the moderator, Dr. Kirkbride; also a layman, George O. Ramsey.

Rev. Byers Reports
The moderator called upon Rev. Byers for the first report of the committee. The Neshaunook Presbyterian minister arose and gave his view of the problem. He spoke informally, as did all the committee members, and had no prepared statement.

"I went there," he said, "to sit down and talk over the situation. I wondered if they knew what a serious thing was confronting them, whether they knew what it would mean to their church and their pastor. The elders, one after another, gave their attitude. It was not changed in the least. They were determined to work out."

Rev. Byers gave as his opinion that the action of the Calvary members who voted for the resolution "comes out of a leadership not acquainted with Presbyterianism, lack of information. He said that the criticism of the denomination as a whole was 'so far from the truth that it is too bad to have to mention it today.'"

He concluded by saying that he feels it impossible to bring the church again into the Presbyterian fold.

Concur In Statements
Rev. Bingham and Dr. Kirkbride seemed to concur in their fellow committee member's report. Mr. Bingham said that the elders and pastor of Calvary had answered that the Presbyterianism "an apostate church," when he asked them why they want to leave.

All three committee spokesmen expressed themselves as grieved that they were unable to persuade the withdrawing group to remain. At the same time they cast no aspersions upon this group nor the minority. They are perfectly earnest and sincere," the moderator said.

At the meeting, presbytery no representative of Calvary church was present.

Two members of the presbytery committee, George Ramsey and Rev. Schnebly, were unable to be present. Rev. Schnebly because of a death in his family.

Aside from the Calvary church matter, the only other business transacted concerned several overtures which had been given consideration in committee. Rev. A. M. Stevenson of Ellwood City recommended that they be replied to in the negative, a recommendation of which the body approved. The overtures would have caused contractual relations as pastor or executive to cease mandatorially at the age of 70 years, and would have placed additional restrictions upon presbytery membership. Both overtures were rejected.

IN PERFECT UNISON:
Jones: Do you agree with the theory that a man and his wife eventually get so they think the same things?

Smith: Certainly. Why, right now, my wife is thinking of what she is going to say to me for getting home late—and so am I.

New Castle Boys Will Make Cruise With U. S. Ships
Hartland And Palus To Be On Midshipmen's Cruise To European Waters In June

When three United States battleships leave Annapolis, Md., on June 3 for the midshipmen's cruise in European waters, two New Castle boys will be aboard, James W. Hartland and George Palus. Both are midshipmen. Hartland being in his first year of training and Palus in his third.

Coincidentally the two boys will be on the same battleship, the U. S. S. Texas, one of the finest of the American Navy. From Annapolis the cruise will take them to England, to France, and to the Scandinavian countries. In all it will occupy three months time.

On the way over the midshipmen will be trained in gunnery fire, and in the various requirements of a naval officer. On the other side, there will be a number of side trips. London will be visited, Paris, Fontenay, Stockholm, Copenhagen, and a number of other cities, with sufficient time allowed for the midshipmen to really see the sights.

There is still another New Castle young man in the naval academy, Midshipman George Muse who will be graduated as an ensign in June and assigned to the U. S. S. New Mexico for service.

Midshipman Hartland is the son of County Treasurer and Mrs. Joseph H. Hartland. He went to the academy by way of the New Castle high school and the Bullis School in Washington. Palus won his appointment by way of service in the Marines, and the training school in Norfolk, Va. Must also attend the Bullis School before his appointment.

No Mr. Farley, a good manager can make a camp, but that doesn't mean he couldn't be one.

Director Of Streets Dunlap Opposes Oiling At City's Expense

Streets Director William H. Dunlap during council meeting at city hall Monday, requested colleagues to consider the streets oiling problem. He said the question will soon arise and councilmen should determine, each for himself, what he proposes the city should do. He said that, insofar as he is concerned, he has decided against oiling street intersections at the expense of the city.

Dunlap stated that he is not opposed to paying for oil on thoroughfares leading to cemeteries.

Mayor Charles E. McGrath said he believes one barrel of oil would oil a street intersection.

Safety Director J. M. Rice expressed the opinion that the city should pay for oiling street intersections.

Here's Itinerary Of Applicants For Operator's License

State Motor Police Examine Prospective Motor Car
Drivers

Squad from the State Motor police barracks at Butler examined prospective operators today in Sampson street. The number examined here so far this year is reported below the number for the same period last year.

Applicants were accompanied to the test station by a licensed operator. The applicant presented for scrutiny the owner's card for the car used, the licensed operator's card and the also the learner's permit.

They were then required to give their name, age and address. After this procedure had been finished they were requested to read a visibility and a color chart, the latter to determine if applicants are color blind.

Following this phase of the examination the applicants entered the automobile and turned on front and rear lights. The officers inspected the lights for defects. If found defective they had to be corrected.

When the lights proved satisfactory the applicants were given a steering examination. They drove several hundred yards along Sampson street, then were required to turn the car in the street without touching the curb, or stalling the motor.

Upon completion of this test they drove to the test station where the applicants were examined as to their knowledge of the state motor laws. If they passed all the tests they were given the legal right to drive.

It has been noticed recently that some aged persons have taken the examination. The eldest man so far who has taken the test here recently was more than 70 years. He failed to pass and must take another test.

War Mothers Honored By Legion Auxiliary

Annual Mothers And Daughters Banquet At Legion Home Last Evening

Never has the American Legion Auxiliary had a more joyous mothers and daughters banquet than that of Monday evening in the Legion Home.

Guests filled the dining room to capacity when the banquet was served at 6:30 o'clock. Everything had been delightfully arranged, for which the committee of the Perry S. Gaston Unit 243 deserves the highest praise. On this committee were: general chairman, Mrs. Orville Potter, chairman of Gold Star Mothers, Mrs. Anna Gors, Mrs. Charles Strong, Mrs. Diana Sweet, Mrs. Frances Cope, Mrs. Lillian Falk, Mrs. Dave Tobin and Mrs. Nellie Brooks.

Honor guests of the occasion were the following Gold Star Mothers:

Gold Star Mothers: Mrs. Emma Campbell, Mrs. Anna Boyd, Mrs. Mollie Bookwalter, Mrs. Ralph Lamb, Mrs. E. E. McGill, Mrs. Melia Smith, Mrs. Eva Sherry and Mrs. Anna Gors.

The Gold Star Mothers marched into the dining room, each carrying a small American flag. Mrs. Orville Potter, toastmistress of the evening, asked all to stand for thirty seconds in memory of the honored dead. Then, the salute to the flag, a verse of "America" and invocation by the chaplain, Mrs. John Gaston.

Mrs. James Cooper, senior vice president of the Perry S. Gaston Post Auxiliary, gave the address of welcome in the absence of the president, Mrs. William G. Fleming, whose husband is ill.

Introduced Guests:

Mrs. Potter then introduced the Gold Star Mothers and the various special guests of the evening. These included Mrs. Sidney Berstler of Ellwood City, president of the Four-County Council, Mrs. A. B. Dennison, of Slippery Rock, re-habilitation chairman, Major C. J. Wadsworth, district commander of the American Legion, Mrs. Carl Staebler and Mrs. Ruth Conner, past presidents of the Veterans of Foreign Wars Auxiliary, Mrs. Anna McKee, past president of Dundalk Unit 38 of Baltimore, Md., Mrs. Marvin Dinsmore, past president of the Daughters of 1812, Miss Lillian Hartman, past president of the Perry S. Gaston Auxiliary, and Mrs. John Luck, an officer of the Ellwood City Unit.

All gave brief, appropriate remarks. Mrs. Cooper, senior vice president, presented each of the Gold Star Mothers with a beautiful corsage. Later in the evening the ladies also received gifts sent by Mrs. John Fulton of Sharon, and presented by Mrs. Diana Sweet, junior vice president, and souvenir handkerchiefs from the hostess unit.

A piano selection, "Sweet Hour of Prayer" was played by Bertha Lou Staebler, followed by an encore number later, "Little Old Lady." A fine talk on the responsibility of mothers was given by Mrs. Anna Gors, Gold Star Mother and member of the American Legion Auxiliary. Mrs. Berstler of Ellwood City made the presentation of gifts to Mrs. Emma Campbell, oldest Gold Star Mother present, and to Mrs. Charles Strong, oldest mother of the Perry S. Gaston Unit president. Mrs. Mary Doyle was the accompanist of the evening.

Mrs. Fehi Speaks: The principal speaker was Mrs. F. R. Fehi, of this city, who had been invited to attend the gathering and speak on a Mothers Day topic. Mrs. Fehi gave an inspiring address on the subject, "What My Mother Was To Me."

For the occasion the tables had been elaborately decorated in blue and gold. The cynosure of attention was an unique layout which had been conceived and planned by Mrs. Gors. Entitled "A Mother's Vision of 1918," scene was illustrated by a hundred miniature soldiers. In connection with this lay-out Mrs. Frances Cope gave a descriptive reading, "Our Mother on the Side-walk," and Bertha Lou Staebler played "Little Old Lady."

The evening was concluded with an impressive candlelight service conducted by Mrs. Orville Potter.

What Well-Dressed College Girl Will Wear

Senior coeds at the University of Pittsburgh have decided to set a standard for senior week and commencement dress. Accordingly, a committee has selected two different dresses, shown above, as ideal for the festivities attendant upon graduation. Miss Betty Brooke, Squirrel Hill, Pittsburgh, (center) illustrates how the senior white dress appears when worn under the academic gown. Parking Meter Case Is Argued

Another Step In Legal Proceedings Takes Place At Court Today

Arguments were started this morning in court room number one, before Judge W. Walter Brahm, in the injunction suit brought by Harry J. Clark against the City of New Castle. Mr. Clark, a South Side business man asks that the city be restrained from placing parking meters in front of his Long avenue store.

Appearing for Mr. Clark, Attorney Alvah M. Shumaker presented arguments designed to show that the meters were illegal, that the city has no right to place meters in the streets and that the doing so is a violation of Mr. Clark's property rights.

The point stressed chiefly by Mr. Shumaker was that the city has no legal right to rent out parking space in the city streets and that the installation of meters was a form of rental. His argument consumed most of the time between 10 o'clock and noon. With him in the case is Attorney Joseph A. Letz.

For the city, Attorneys William D. Coburn and Gilbert Long, city solicitors, and Attorney J. Glenn Berry are counsel. Their arguments will likely take up most of the afternoon. Following the argument it will be some time before an opinion is handed down as the case involves a number of complex legal points.

MUSSOLINI TO URGE CAUTION UPON HITLER

Basin and the possibilities of an Italo-German military alliance are definitely on the agenda.

Deny Reports: Official circles were instructed to deny that the recent Anglo-French conversations prompted Hitler to summon Dr. Franz Weormann, his former Charge d'Affaires in London to accompany him to Rome.

No sooner had Weormann reached Berlin to assume his new post as under-secretary for foreign affairs than he was told to pack his bag for Rome. Weormann is fully posted on the Anglo-French discussions, particularly with relation to their military and Czechoslovakian angles, and these will form a major part of the "inside" talks between Hitler and Mussolini.

Indicative of further German expectations in Europe was the fact Herr Gauss, chief of the legal department of the German foreign office, was ordered to come along in case intricate legal interpretations, opinions or briefs are called for. General Wilhelm Keitel of the German general staff is expected to size up the Italian army, which is of greater interest to Germany than its naval strength.

Rome-Berlin Axis Stands: Despite the reported coolness to Hitler on the part of the Italian people because of his seizure of Austria, apparently well-informed sources declared that whatever difference of viewpoints may arise, the Rome-Berlin axis "stands solid" and that whoever hopes to see it weakened definitely will be disappointed.

Mussolini, it was learned, will survive to convince Hitler an Italo-French agreement along the lines of the Anglo-Italian accord will strengthen rather than weaken the axis. He also will attempt to obtain an indication of Germany's willingness to conclude an accord with Great Britain which could form another link in a series of understandings paving the way for a five-power pact to include Poland.

Germany looked askance at the Italo-French flirtation and brought pressure on Italy to refrain from concluding an agreement until after Hitler's visit. The Italians agreed but Mussolini is now anxious to push the accord as soon as possible. Meanwhile, reports persisted that Hitler as early as possible will propose to Italy an outright defensive military alliance.

Hitler In Italy.

En route to Rome with Chancellor Hitler's special train, May 3.—Speeding southward from Germany for his momentous meeting with Premier Mussolini, Chancellor Adolf Hitler reached Italian soil today and was immediately accorded an elaborate reception.

Passing through historic—and strategic Brenner pass, the Reichsfuehrer's luxurious special train arrived at the Brenner station at 7:58 a. m.

There he was met by the Duke of Pistoia, representing King Emperor Victor Emmanuel of Italy, and by Achille Starace, secretary general of the Fascist party, representing Il Duce.

Numerous army officers and local authorities also were on hand to greet Hitler, who is scheduled to reach Rome at 8:30 p. m. for the visit which he hopes will prove to the world that his friendship with Mussolini, and the Rome-Berlin axis stand firm despite Nazi seizure of Austria or renewal of Italian friendship with Britain.

When he left Berlin yesterday afternoon, Hitler was given a rousing send-off by thousands of Germans. When he reaches Rome he will be given a reception that for pageantry and magnificence will rival anything Hollywood could produce.

But amid the pageantry, the two dictators will play a mighty game of diplomatic poker, with Hitler, according to best information, urging specific measures to offset the new defensive military alliance between Great Britain and France.

Strict precautions, hidden by the cheerful welcome accorded Hitler, were taken to guard the Fuehrer against harm on his visit to Italy. Virtually every fact of the railroads was vigilantly guarded by Nazi police in German territory and by Fascist police on Italian soil.

From Brenner pass to Rome, it was estimated, some 7,000 to 20,000 persons—anti-Nazis, Jews and even Italian non-Fascists—were either jailed, placed in concentration camps, held in protective custody, put under surveillance or warned to keep out of sight lest any harm befall Hitler.

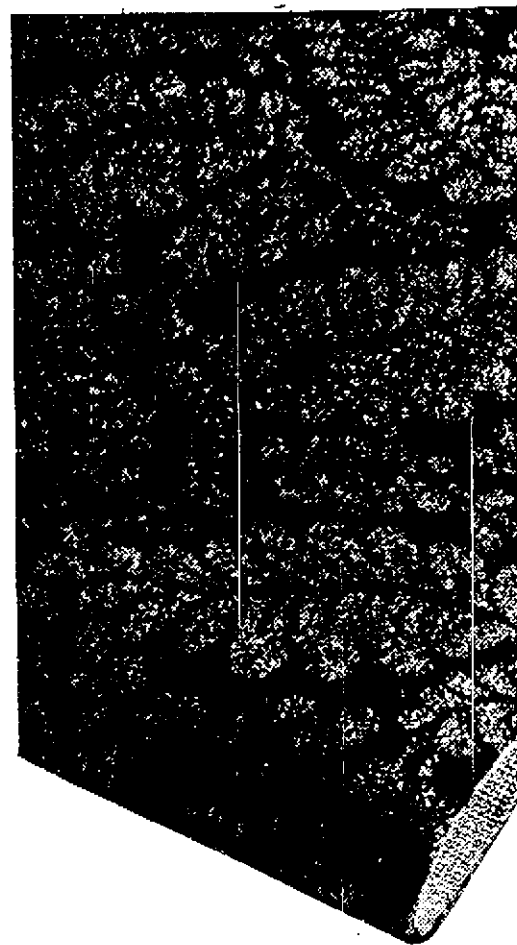

Albany Neighbors "Swapping" Deeds

ALBANY, May 3.—Two Albany neighbors are "swapping deeds" today after Stephen D. Griffin, 127 Northern Boulevard discovered he was living in the wrong house.

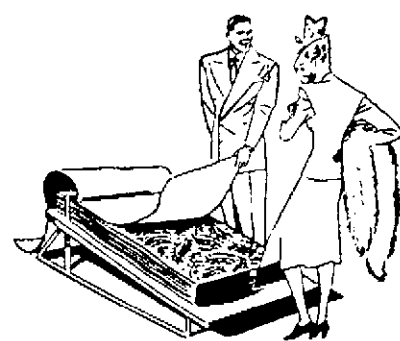

The strange mixup came to light when Griffin, preparing to improve the building, found that his deed gave him title to the house of his neighbor, George Benn.

Even then looked up his deed and found that his family had owned the Griffin house since 1870. Attorneys prescribed an exchange as a solution to the legal difficulties.

Lions Here Attend Greenville Dinner

Entire Club Joins Regional Host In Program Last Night

Headed by their club officers, members of the New Castle Lions club motored to Greenville last night to attend, along with members from five other Lions' clubs of this section, a periodical regional dinner program held in the Riverside hotel there. Nearly 130 attended the affair.

Today's customary noon meeting of the club was passed up because of the night affair.

Principal speaker at the dinner was District Governor Ed. B. Goldsmith of District 14-B, from Mt. Lebanon, Pittsburgh. Presiding was the present regional director, Joseph Dockman, member of the Farrell club.

Secretary Thomas L. Elliott, speaking with other club secretaries, reported recent activities of the local club.

The New Castle men joined other delegations in the presentation of stunts. Three separate performances were sponsored by the locals, with George Smith, G. Earl Williams, Arthur Meek, Dr. T. J. Fletcher, Charles Hudson and Harding Thayer supplying the talent.

Musical features were numbers by a Thiel college quartet and trumpet solos by a Farrell Lion.

During the business session, the district clubs chose Dr. Thomas Holleran, Greenville dentist and former Pitt football star, as regional director for the coming year. He takes office July 1.

Honor was bestowed upon James L. Bracken, prominent Greenville member who has earned for himself the distinction of "grand master key member" for bringing 50 new members into Lionism since 1932.

Mr. Bracken will be honored when the Lions of District 14 convene in York June 12-13-14 for their state convention.

District Governor Goldsmith urged a large York convention attendance.

Represented along with the New Castle and Greenville clubs last night were the Butler, Farrell, Beaver Falls and Ambbridge clubs.

CORNS COME BACK BIGGER-UGLIER

OLD-FASHIONED home paring is dangerous! It means risk of infection and only affects the surface of a corn—leaves the root to come back bigger, uglier, more painful than ever.

Don't take chances. Follow the example of millions and play safe with the modern, double-action Blue-Jay method. The tiny medicated Blue-Jay plaster stops pain instantly by removing pressure, then in 3 short days the corn lifts out root and all (exceptionally stubborn cases may require a second application). Blue-Jay is easy to use—invisible. Safe—scientific—quick-acting. Only 25¢ for a package of 6. Same price in Canada.

Next Years U. S. Navy Maneuvers Will Center In Atlantic

Naval Display Being Planned

Warfare Program Will Be Concentrated At New York City

CANAL TESTS WILL ALSO BE FACTOR

By ROBERT G. NIXON
International News Service Staff

WASHINGTON, May 3.—America's naval might will move into the Atlantic next year, concentrating at New York City, in one of the most spectacular displays of naval power in history.

For the first time since it was hurried to the Pacific at the height of the Sino-Japanese conflict of 1931-32 when American relations with Japan were severely strained, the United States fleet will return in full fighting force to "home" waters. The Atlantic naval concentration will constitute a delicate hint to Nazi Germany and Fascist Italy that the United States is fully prepared to enforce President Roosevelt's declaration that no foreign aggression in Latin-America will be tolerated by this nation.

Plans Are Tentative

While the navy's plans are as yet tentative, but May, 1939, has been set as the probable month for the fleet to concentrate at New York. Portions of the fleet are expected also to visit Charleston, S. C., Norfolk, Philadelphia and Boston.

The navy high command, International News Service learned, has definitely decided its next fleet problem will be removed from the Pacific, where they have been held for several years, to the Atlantic area.

Next year's fleet problem, it is understood, will deal with defense of the Panama Canal and the south-eastern United States from attack by a theoretical coalition of fleets of European powers seeking to gain a foothold in the western hemisphere.

Test Canal Use

The mimic warfare, carried out under simulated wartime conditions, will involve protection of the vital Panama Canal on both Pacific and Atlantic sides.

The transit of the fleet through the canal from the Pacific will be carried out at the highest possible speed as a test of what this country would face in transferring the fleet from the Pacific should a naval attack suddenly be launched against the United States from Europe.

After screening the Caribbean Sea and Gulf of Mexico from approach of a hostile fleet, the American battle force will move on northward into the Atlantic.

Here the problem will be to protect New York and other major eastern cities and industrial centers from attack.

Judge George H. Rowley is sitting in court room number two hearing some contested divorce proceedings. Judges Brahm and Dickey were interested as attorneys in the cases and asked Judge Rowley to come in for the hearings.

In a libel in divorce filed with the prothonotary and clerk of courts, John A. Edgar, Mrs. Sofia Aboud, wife of Albert Aboud asks a divorce upon the grounds of desertion. They were married October 19, 1930. Mr. Aboud, also known as Abdalla Tanas Aboud emigrated to the Republic of Mexico sometime prior to the wedding in 1930 and lived in Mexico.

Following the wedding here in Pennsylvania he took his bride to El Paso, Texas and then into Juarez, Mexico where they set up housekeeping. He had come into the United States on a three months permit.

In 1931 Mrs. Aboud was taken sick and returned to her family, but sent her husband word that she needed money for doctor bills. She never heard from him. On February 17, 1932 he secured a Mexican divorce on the grounds of desertion and since then Mrs. Aboud has heard nothing from him. She claims the Mexican divorce was illegal in the United States and asks a divorce upon the grounds of desertion. He is supposed to be living in Chihuahua, Mexico.

The bar association held a meeting Monday afternoon but the results of the meeting are not made public. The bar association is the lawyer's lodge and like lodge meetings of other kinds, what goes on in the lodge room is the members own business.

The painting of the sheriff's office is about completed and the office looks like a fellow who had been wearing old clothes for years suddenly dressed up in a new suit and shoes. There is a little wood work to be finished yet but this will take but little time.

The county commissioners have asked the Works Progress Administration to work up a project for the painting of the outside of the court house. The commissioners believe they can give the outside a new coat at comparatively little expense.

Under the terms of the contract with the Wolf Company of Philadelphia, the audit which was authorized by the county commissioners some weeks ago is to be reported on Thursday of this week. While no statement has been made public as to the findings there have been a number of citizens throughout the county visited and asked if they could show tax receipts for one or two past years. Some of them were told that their taxes were not marked and that their bills had been filed against them.

History Written To Aid Solution Of Future Problems

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, May 3.—History was once written to teach respect for elders, but today it is written so that future problems can be solved through a knowledge of the past. Dr. Leon S. Marshall, acting head of the history department, Westminster college, told students Monday.

Students cannot take the attitude suggested by a popular song, "I don't want to make history; I just want to make love," according to Dr. Marshall. Every individual, whether he wants to or not, makes history, as a part of such mass movements as the church, political parties, Ku Klux Klan or any social group.

Referring to the way history predicts the future, Dr. Marshall indicated that a war in Europe was practically inevitable within the next 10 to 25 years; and added that if war came before ten years, it would indicate that history had erred in making its prediction.

Parking Rules Being Enforced At Mercer Now

(Special To The News) — Mercer May 3 — A parking ordinance with teeth in it is being put into effect by Mercer County judges today. The ordinance means business when they put up signs limiting parking in front of the business houses to 30 minutes and two hours in front of the court house. Both sides of the Diamond have been liberally posted with signs and officers are vigilant. Cars are ticketed by local police. The fine is one dollar in the court of Mayor J. Scott Bell.

The court house parking had reached a degree of absorption when it was impossible to get space to park. To stop the all day parking the ordinance was enforced. Free parking grounds are provided.

Court house officials, attorneys, visitors of importance have been caught in the net.

SAYS CONSTIPATION LIKE TRAFFIC JAM

Results Same in Disorders, Confusion and Delay

Famous World's Tonic Helped Straighten Out Mess

A traffic jam ties up traffic, causes nervous excitement, confusion and delay and soon the congestion reaches into cross streets and ties up other arteries and passages that should have a free flowing movement in order to keep all traffic moving in an orderly manner. It doesn't take much imagination to apply the foregoing description to a person who is tied up by occasional constipation. From starting in the stomach the effects of constipation could reach out and affect other parts with trouble and disorder until one was all tied up as bad if not worse than a traffic jam. See how Mr. Thomas Kirk of 113 Cliff St., New Kensington, Pa., makes this comparison.

"I've suffered from constipation for so long and have had so many other troubles result from it that I couldn't help thinking it was almost like a traffic jam. Constipation can start in your stomach and when you let the food traffic pile up instead of digesting and moving on properly it won't be long before other parts start clogging up just like the side streets do in traffic. Poor elimination in my case affected so many other parts that I was frightened. My liver was sluggish, my kidneys weak, my head was affected with dizziness caused by rush of blood and my eyes were bothered with spotty vision at times. Pains in my back and limbs at times were awful. During some days even my feet and ankles would swell and stay like that until I got off my feet and in bed. So you can see I can truthfully say 'I was bothered clear from my head to my toes.'"

"It seemed that constipation just worked overtime to pile up poisons that brought on many kinds of sickness and ills."

"I came across World's Tonic at the shop where I work and started taking it several weeks ago. It certainly straightened out the traffic jam of constipation beautifully for me. And as soon as I started getting orderly movement here, all the side issues started clearing up in grand style just like the side streets start clearing in traffic when the main street traffic starts to move."

World's Tonic is intended to assist nature in promoting a free and liberal bowel action. You do not have to buy extra pills or tablets to get results.

Get World's Tonic at Eckerd's, Paisley's, and all other progressive drug stores.

Giants Invade West Sporting Lead In League

Have Won 11 Straight Games, Pirates Again Fold Up To Cincinnati Reds

INDIANS MAKE TEN RUNS ONE INNING

By DAVIS J. WALSH

NEW YORK, May 3.—Mr. (Fahnestock) Terry's New York Giants aren't much to look at. In fact, the last time I was looking, which was in the 1937 World Series, everybody also wasn't, large numbers of people humbly averting their gaze from the melancholy scene below.

As a matter of fact, they're either awful good or the rest of that league they're in is awful bad. For they started west on their first swing around last night behind an 11-game winning streak and a 3½ game lead over the National League field.

They lost the second game of the season to the Reds. They won all the rest from the Reds, Phillies and Dodgers, some close, others not.

Win Eleven Straight

The class of the National League contention is in the west, of course. But that's where it has been while the Giants were winning two straight pennants. They did that later with pitching, Indian Love tokens, with fulfillment and the tops of old milk bottles, strung on a cord and worn as a lavaliere under the sleeping garment in the dead of night.

This time, the boys have become unwontedly violent, hitting eighteen homers in twelve games. Three of them yesterday by Moore, Leiber, Rippel to give the Giants a 7-4 victory over the Dodgers their eleventh in a row. Melton pitched his fourth victory the Dodgers not betting any more until the eighth. They still didn't.

Indians Win Again

The Indians went further into the lead in the American League by putting on a 10-run inning and beat the Tigers, 11-3, while the Senators were blowing a close one to the Yankees, 3-2. Averill's home run with one on started the inning.

Scoring against Wade in the fourth and Elvess and Benton, who followed—did just that. They followed Wade to the club house.

Johnny Allen returning to official favor, pitched a 7-hitter. The victory was Cleveland's fifth in six games with the Tigers.

Di Maggio's homer, his second in two days, and doubles by Henrich and Dickey, gave the Yankees their decision over Washington. Pearson giving up a run each in the sixth and seventh, finally was forced out in the eighth. Murphy finishing Gehrig was dropped to sixth position in the batting order for the first time in thirteen years.

Cards Take Victory

Joe Medwick's eighth inning homer with one on won for the Cardinals over the Cubs, 6-3, after Lee had entered the eighth inning behind a one run lead. Hits by Brown and Slaughter nullified that and Medwick did the rest.

Having learned the trick, the Reds again beat the Pirates, who used to play Sweeney to their tribby so often. The score was 8-6. Goodenough's two homers being a deciding factor.

The Bees weren't scheduled against the Phillies. Neither were the White Sox against the Browns. There are liable to be times in August when the Phils and Browns wish they'd write that sort of thing into the league rules.

DeCaprios Trim

Pearsons 5 To 3

The DeCaprios softball team of the Junior softball league handed the Pearson A. C. of the Junior league a 5 to 3 defeat in an exhibition game yesterday at Dean Park field. Santangelo and Cozza had the losers to four hits. The DeCaps had five hits off of Alferra.

Score by innings—
DeCaprios.....101 001 2—5 5 1
Pearson A. C.....100 010 1—3 4 5
Batteries—Caprios, Santangelo, Cozza and Corio.

Pearson A. C.—Alferra and Pavla. Umpire—Yanks Alferra.

Radiators Cop

Fifth Win, 13-0

Showering Clifton Flats with a barrage of base hits, the National Radiator softball team copied its fifth consecutive victory at the expense of the Royal A. C. Monday night. The final score, 13-0.

Cooper and Lowry led the winners for the Radiators. On Wednesday night on the Radiator field, the Radiators will lineup against the N. Y. A. and on Thursday night, the Weavers will be the opponents. Both games start at 8:45 o'clock.

German Tennis Star Will Face Trial On May 14

Baron Gottfried Von Cramm, Charged With Morals Offense In Germany

(International News Service)
BERLIN, May 3.—Baron Gottfried von Cramm, the German tennis ace, will go on trial in the famous 500-club criminal court on a morals charge May 14, authorities announced today.

The Davis cup player, well-known in tennis circles from coast to coast in the United States, is charged with violation of paragraph 175 of the criminal code.

The trial is likely to be public, but it is possible that the judge will exclude spectators if the nature of the testimony is considered sufficiently delicate.

To tennis quarters the announcement that Von Cramm would definitely be prosecuted, after many weeks of doubt, came as a blow.

It will completely destroy Germany's chances in competition for the Davis cup, they said, as Germany has no other tennis stars who can carry Von Cramm's burden in play.

Moabit courts near grim Moabit prison are noted as the trial scene for many prominent personages and their sentences often lead to the guillotine.

The Nobils softball team of the City League will be a fast one, it was announced today by Manager Gabby DeCaprio and Coach Italo Andino.

The Shoemans are going to make a determined bid for the city championship this year. The first workout was held Monday night and the team looked very impressive.

The Nobils will have such well known stars as, Tex Richards, Norman Biskara, Lee Garido, Jim Deep, S. Eugene Copple, Turco, Shoes Yerage, Pete Zingaro, Sam Billiano, Mike Pownick, Frank Copple, Gabby DeCaprio, Lefty Roark, Gunbert Yerage, Dizzy Santangelo, Louie Colletto, John Tropica, Melton Yerage, Pete Madure, Leo Orrell, and many others.

STROLLERS DEFEAT TEAM ON MONDAY

The East Side Strollers softball team defeated the Hawaiians, 10-3 in a game at the Rosena Avenue field, Monday evening. Stubs Dewyer and Gunther pitched for the Strollers and permitted seven hits.

Batting stars for the Strollers were: Hug Riley with a triple, double, and a single. Toet Crane and Evans had triples, while Quinto and Nocera both made doubles.

For the losers, Dutkin and Alexander were the best bats. Tonight at Dean Park the strollers will play the Tiger Club.

Producers of "Rawhide" that awful western thriller with Lou Gehrig in a hero's role, say they're going to get the big fellow for some more pictures. That is a threat.

Unsymphonious Orchestra cost, Prexy Sam Braddock $200. Leaving him with only $184,800 left of that pile he got for "O' Diz." If the Browns drop another 13-inning game, bet that number 13 comes off Boss Gabby Street's shirt.

The Di Maggio holdout really did get under Jake Ruppert's skin, we are told by friends of Der Kuehel.

Colonel Jake advised baseball wants to take that not offered by Jimmy Powers of the News.

Powers offered $5,000 that Di Maggio was signed last fall, and that the holdout was just another build-up. . . . Mistern Powers isn't fooling, he says, and as yet has no takers.

I don't happen to have $5,000 myself.

Mike Medwick Beats Hamacher

Chuck Arnett Wins, Moran Loses And Belisco Wins By Knockout, Last Night

Several hundred members of the B. P. O. E. No. 69, turned out last night to witness the Marching club's fistie inaugural and those who did were not disappointed. They saw four bouts in which punned predominated and it is likely that the club will follow up with more fistie shows.

In the first bout Patsy Belisco, Jefferson A. C. this city, made short work of Joe Jemovick of Salem in the welterweight class. A right to the chin put Jemovick down and the towel sailed in as he was being counted out in the first round.

Earl Donaldson, a former featherweight champion of Ohio tangled with Chuck Arnett of West Pittsburg, in the welterweight class. Arnett's southpaw stance had Donaldson puzzled. Going into the third round with honors even Arnett proved a little more aggressive and copped the decision.

The third fight on the program between Mike Medwick, 160 and Del Hamacher of Youngstown, 240, was the berries. They started off with trip-hammer punches and in the first Mike, who is only 18, slammed a right to the jaw that spilled the Oilcan for a count of nine.

In the second chapter Mike had Hamacher on the ropes and just before the bell shot a right to the jaw that laid Hamacher on the floor again. Before the referee could begin counting the bell sounded. Hamacher fought back to the clinch, however he arose and although he was outpointed, he heard the last bell with Mike the winner.

Frankie Moran, the southpaw showed a lot of stuff for a youngster against a seasoned Earl Brown of Youngstown in a featherweight bout. Brown captured the decision in a close fight but while Moran did not capture the nod he did show that he is progressing and that he will not be long until he will be able to turn out decisions against boys like Brown.

Sam Leyshock of Farrell was the referee.

Prepare Poppies For Distribution

Poppy Day In Ellwood City To Be Observed On Saturday, May 7

ELLWOOD CITY, May 3.—World War veterans who advanced thru the poppy studded fields of France during the drives of 1918 would be in familiar surroundings at the Poppy Day headquarters of the J. Wilbur Randolph unit of the American Legion Auxiliary on Sixth street. The headquarters is blooming with a profusion of poppies as members of the Auxiliary are preparing the flowers for distribution on Poppy Day, Saturday May 7.

The poppies, made by disabled veterans at Veterans hospital are being unpacked, counted and arranged for the women who will offer them on the streets to be worn in tribute to the World War dead. They are fashioned from bright red crepe paper with wire stems and resemble as closely as possible the poppies that grew among the trenches, shell holes and wooden crosses of the battle front in France.

Making the poppies has given employment to many hundreds of disabled veterans during the winter and spring Poppy manufacturing centers were operated by the Auxiliary in forty states, either in government hospitals where the work is used as a valuable occupational therapy treatment, or in convalescent workshops for disabled men outside of the hospitals. More than ten million of the little flowers have been made.

Members of the Auxiliary are busy this week with preparations for Poppy Day. Volunteer workers who will distribute the flowers have been divided into teams and each team assigned a specific location in the city. Special badges will identify these women as bona-fide American Legion auxiliary workers and give assurance the entire amount of all contributions made for the poppy will go to the welfare work of the Legion and Auxiliary.
